OVERVIEW

The Securities Operations Foundation Qualification (SOFQ) is an introductory level programme intended for anyone entering a career in the securities operations area of the financial markets.

The syllabus has been specifically designed to provide the essential information necessary for candidates to develop a thorough understanding of both the debt and equity markets and, in particular, securities operations concepts.

In order to ensure focus and to test a candidates understanding of concepts, exercises will be introduced at numerous points during the course.

By completing the programme you will:

- Understand the primary components of the securities trade lifecycle
- Comprehend the similarities & differences between equities and bonds
- Be able to demonstrate an understanding of how equities and bonds are brought to the marketplace
- Appreciate the roles of the major securities market participants

“

The course provided me with a full insight into the securities settlement process. It was extremely beneficial.

Operations Manager,
Ikano Fund Management

CONTENT

The course content is divided into two specific topic areas, which are then broken down into multiple subtopics:

1. Generic Operations Concepts

- The financial services environment
- Fundamental banking operations concepts

2. Securities Operations Concepts

- Securities products
- Equity and debt issuance
- Trade and settlement concepts
- External trading infrastructure
- Internal trading infrastructure
- External settlement infrastructure
- Internal operations infrastructure
- Trade cash value calculation
- The securities trade life-cycle - an overview
- Repos - an overview
- Securities lending and borrowing - an Overview

FORMAT

The Securities Operations Foundation Qualification is available in two formats:

- Classroom-based: Three day programme held multiple times a year in destinations across Europe.
- Online: This option allows total flexibility as candidates work at their own pace (subject to a three month exam deadline), in their own time and location; there is no need to take time off work or spend time away from home.

Candidates who choose to study online receive ongoing support from an expert e-tutor and the ability to discuss questions with fellow candidates.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This qualification is directly relevant to people entering the world of securities operations and personnel currently working within this field who wish to gain a broader view of the subject.

Although not a formal prerequisite, the SOFQ provides useful background study for those wishing to study the ICMA Operations Certificate Programme (OCP) and our non-examined operations training programmes.

PROGRAMME RECOGNITION

Candidates who are successful in gaining the Securities Operations Foundation Qualification qualify for 16.5 credit hours under the guidelines of the CFA Institute's Continuing Education Programme.

“

Despite my previous experience, this course vastly enriched my knowledge and skills in my day to day business activities.

ICMA EXECUTIVE EDUCATION

For many years ICMA Executive Education has been regarded as the benchmark in training for both the front office and operations areas of business. Our qualifications and training programmes are internationally recognised and are required training by many of our member firms. ICMA Executive Education is unique in that ICMA and the ICMA Centre, Henley Business School, University of Reading work together to deliver training courses, taught by current and former financial markets practitioners which blend practical and academic know-how, so that candidates have a thorough understanding of the topics being discussed.

Seven examined qualifications are offered:

- Financial Markets Foundation Qualification (FMFQ)
- Securities Operations Foundation Qualification (SOFQ)
- Introduction to Fixed Income Qualification (IFIQ)
- Introduction to Primary Markets Qualification (IPMQ)
- ICMA Fixed Income Certificate (FIC)
- Operations Certificate Programme (OCP)
- Primary Market Certificate (PMC)

All are recognised as certificates of competence in the capital markets and are successfully completed by large numbers of international participants each year. In addition to our examined qualifications we also offer a selection of non-examined training programmes throughout the year. These programmes look at a single topic from the syllabus of one of our intermediate qualifications, but are explored in much greater depth to a targeted audience. The training is extremely focused and provides an opportunity to network and discuss the issues affecting the financial markets with your industry peers.

ICMA Executive Education is able to provide any of its public qualifications and training programmes on an in-house basis.
